

MEMBERSHIP RECRUITERS

Part-time (self-employed), flexible hours.

The Game & Wildlife Conservation Trust, a leading UK charity, is now recruiting highly motivated and target-driven individuals to join our team of Membership Recruiters across the country. Covering your county, you will use your established networks and other opportunities you find to drive Membership recruitment in your region and to increase awareness about the Trust and the work we do.

In return the Trust offers generous commission on annual Membership donations with an earning potential of £10K and upwards in your second year. We also provide full and on-going training for all our Recruiters.

If you are enthusiastic about the countryside and well connected within its communities (e.g. conservation, field sports, farming) have a good “way” with people and enjoy making new contacts this could be the job for you.

Interested? Contact Jamie Daniell now for a full job description or to discuss further: jdaniell@gwct.org.uk or by phone: 07970 524177.

About the Trust: The Game & Wildlife Conservation Trust is the leading UK charity conducting scientific research to enhance the British countryside for public benefit. For over 75 years we have been researching and developing game and wildlife management techniques. We provide training and advice to farmers, gamekeepers and land managers on how best to improve the biodiversity of the countryside.
