

Information and conditions of sale

1. All lots sold for acceptance or use within a specific time period will be delivered in compliance with government guidelines on Covid-19 current at that time.
2. There are numerous reasons why a shooting day may have to be cancelled, therefore we recommend that you purchase cancellation insurance for any shoot day you have purchased. More information can be found through the Guns on Pegs website here: <https://www.gwct.org.uk/cancellation> (this link will automatically route you to the Guns on Pegs website via the GWCT one).
3. Purchasers must take the sport being offered on the dates stated or subsequently agreed otherwise they will forfeit the purchased lots. All fishing and stalking will be 2024 and shooting will be during 2024/2025 season unless otherwise stated.
4. GWCT Auction lots are usually sold with an expected bag size. Any significant increase on this number should be agreed between the buyer and the donor on terms acceptable to the donor.
5. Any statement as to authorship, attribution, origin, date, age, provenance and conditions is a statement of opinion, and is not to be taken as a statement or representation of fact.
6. The highest bidder shall be the buyer. If any dispute arises the auctioneer shall have the absolute discretion to settle it and to put any disputed lot up again. The auctioneer acts as agent only. He shall have full discretion to refuse any bidding, to divide any lot, to combine any two or more lots and to withdraw any lot or lots from the sale without in any case giving reason.
7. Payment must be made in cash or by cheque or BACS after the sale. Cheques should be made payable to the Game & Wildlife Conservation Trust.
8. All lots are sold with all faults, imperfections and errors of descriptions. Neither the organiser nor the donor can be held responsible for errors of description or for genuineness or authenticity of any lot, or for any fault or defect in it howsoever caused. No warranty whatever is given by the organisers or donor to any buyer in respect of any lot and any implied conditions or warranties, and all lots are sold subject to no return.
9. Except in so far as other arrangements may have been made with the organisers of the sale, the buyer shall pay the purchase price within seven days of the sale. If at the expiration of a further seven days the lot is not paid for in full, the sale may be rescinded without any notice being given to the buyer. The property of the lot purchased shall not pass to the buyer until he has made payment in full. Nevertheless, every lot shall be at the risk of the buyer from the fall of the hammer.
10. For this sale The Game & Wildlife Conservation Trust will charge no vendor's commission nor will the buyer's premium apply.
11. Purchasers of shooting days are asked to ensure that any person who takes part in the shoot is a safe and experienced shot and is fully covered by Third Party Insurance. The donors reserve the right to see evidence of insurance cover and to ask anyone who shoots dangerously to leave the shooting field immediately. We feel sure that prospective purchasers will appreciate the sense of this condition.
12. All guns must possess up to date Firearm Certificates or Shot Gun Certificates, Game Licences where applicable and be insured.

Game & Wildlife Conservation Trust. Registered Charity No. 112023.
