Friday 15th September 2017

DIRECTIONS & PARKING: The Wing is situated on the New Dover Road at Capel-Le-Ferne, postal code CT18 7JJ. There are two areas to park cars at The Wing and directions will be there on the night.

THE EVENING will commence at 6.30pm with, hopefully, fine September weather and wonderful views across the Channel to France on what is also Battle of Britain Day. All facilities of the Wing including The Scramble Experience will be available. Champagne and canapes will be served.

THE ADDRESS: There will be short speeches by Sir Anthony Beevor and local GWCT Chairman Mr Paul Kelsey with news of GWCT events, starting at approximately 7.45pm.

THE VILLA: Sue Stanford-Tuck has very kindly offered a week's holiday at her spectacular villa on the Island of Lefkas in the Ionian area of Greece. The villa sleeps 10/12 in five ensuite bedrooms with air conditioning and enjoys wonderful views, an infinity pool, privacy and access to the nearby town of Nydri and local beaches. Boat and car hire is available. Full information is available on website www.topetrinovilla.co.uk The holiday may be taken by arrangement in either May or late September/October 2018 and the lead person in the party must be at least 35 year of age.

THE ALDEBURGH HOUSE: Ange Snape is kindly offering a weeks holiday at her beautiful holiday cottage, Winton Lodge. In the centre of Aldeburgh, a five minute walk to the beach and high street, the cottage boasts five sumptuous bedrooms which have been furnished to provide flexibility for both families and groups of friends in this popular seaside town on the Suffolk Coast. The lodge features a large sitting room with fireplace and wall-mounted TV, a bespoke, fully-equipped kitchen and dining area with bi-folding doors allowing plenty of natural light, and a generous enclosed garden, mainly laid to lawn but with a patio area that is perfect for lounging in the sun.
