

Supported by

JULIAN JARDINE GALLERY

2017 Game & Wildlife Conservation Trust Primary Schools' Art Competition

Rules and conditions of entry:

1. The competition is open to all Primary School-aged pupils in the Perth & Kinross area.
2. There are three categories of the competition: Primaries 1-3; 4-5; 6-7.
3. Entrants may only submit one piece of art into the competition each.
4. Entries can be received at either of the addresses below and must be submitted by Friday, 27th October at 3.30 p.m. Entries will not be accepted at either address after this time.
5. Each entry must be accompanied by the name, school and age category of the artist and a contact address/telephone number. Plus a title for their entry with a brief description of why they chose this particular species.
6. The entries will be judged by a panel of judges. One winner, one runner-up and commended entries from each category will be chosen from which an overall winner will be decided.
7. The judges' decision is final and no cash alternatives will be given.
8. All winners, runners-up and commended entries will receive a certificate and prize. The overall winner will also claim:
 - a. A farm visit for his or her class.
 - b. The Michael Wolfe-Murray perpetual trophy for his/her school to retain until the prize-giving of the following year's competition before which it must be returned to GWCT.
 - c. A place on a Julian Jardine art workshop.
 - d. His/her design may also be used in GWCT publications and on merchandise to be sold in aid of the GWCT which is a charity.
9. RHET (Royal Highland Educational Trust) and Julian Jardine will host the winners on dates agreed by all parties.
10. All entries will be the property of GWCT and may be used for their own promotional purposes.
11. Press releases may be issued to launch the competition, announce the judging, for the prize-giving and for the winner's day. Press photographers will be invited to all/some of these events.
12. Winners, runners-up and commended entrants will be required to attend a prize-giving on 23rd November at AK Bell Library. Parents and teachers welcome to attend. Numbers of attendees to be provided to GWCT.
13. Entries may be returned at the entrants own expense or can be collected from GWCT (address below) until Friday, January 26th, 2018
14. An exhibition of a selection of the entries will be on public display at AK Bell Library following the prize-giving.

Entries to be sent to:

Overleaf -

GWCT Art Competition, Game & Wildlife Conservation Trust, Unit 95, Perth Airport, Perthshire PH2 6PL

OR (Please note change of address for Education & Children's services)

F.A.O. Alison Thomson Education & Children's Services, Perth & Kinross Council, 2 High St., Perth. PH1 5PH

Please ask for Alison when dropping off entries at the above address.

For more information, contact Sheena Stewart, Education at the Game & Wildlife Conservation Trust, tel: 07715 428455
email: sstewart@gwct.org.uk